In conjunction with the exhibition, Storefront is pleased to present the first publication on the work of Petra Blaisse and her Amsterdam-based office Inside Outside. The office specializes in a rare combination of both interior and exterior spaces. Questioning traditional relationships between inside and outside, Blaisse has developed a new vocabulary for environments, interweaving architecture and landscape

Designed by Irma Boom, the catalog features a sampling of Blaisse's projects in over 200 pages, with full color and five cuts throughout.

The catalog will be available at Storefront, or for more information please see our web site: www.storefrontnews.org
